LAKEWOOD, Colo. – August 26, 2019 - Today the U.S. Department of Agriculture's (USDA) National Agricultural Statistics Service (NASS) released the second of the subject series data releases that presents 2017 Census of Agriculture statistics that highlight American Indian Reservations.

The statistics presented in this report include:

- Farms and land in farms.
- Tenure.
- Market value of products sold.
- Production expenses.
- Land use practices.
- Producers by days working off-farm.
- Average age.
- Primary producer occupation.

The 2017 Census of Agriculture American Indian Reservations data can be located by visiting the NASS Census of Agriculture website at <https://www.nass.usda.gov/Publications/AgCensus/2017/index.php>, and clicking on the Subject Series link.

Other future releases in the subject series of data releases include Typology, Specialty Crops, Specialty Crops for Outlying Areas and History of the 2017 Census of Agriculture. Watershed subject series data was released July 25, 2019 and can be found in the same location.
